U.S. Admits Bomb Sorties In Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — American officials in Saigon admitted today that U.S. planes are bombing in Cambodia in response to requests from Cambodian authorities.

"We are responding to any one's request for interdiction missions in the area of Cambodia," one official said. Informal sources disclosed that as many as 50 American fighter-bombers, each carrying about eight tons of bombs and rockets, are taking part each day in raids on Cambodian territory.

Hit Favoritism To Steel Plant

Interstate Link Serves One Plant

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government spent nearly $40 million to build a special super-highway as a favor for a new steel plant in rural Illinois, investigators have told Congress.

The 13-mile spur on the interstate highway system was criticized as unjustified in the report Monday by the General Accounting Office (GAO).

The Interstate 180 link, which was opened last fall, runs to the entrance of the new Jones & Laughlin steel plant at Hennepin, Ill.

The GAO, which acts as Congress' watchdog on federal spending, said the steel company's officials insisted on a four-lane superhighway spur as the price of locating the plant in the tiny Illinois town.

The interstate highway cost $47 million, with federal funds providing $39 million of the total and the state paying the rest.

The price was four times the average cost per mile nationally.

Hennepin, which has a population of 391, is a village on the Illinois River about 100 miles southwest of Chicago.

The report criticized the Federal Highway Administration for turning down other requests for spurs in larger metropolitan areas like Tucson, Ariz., and Tacoma, Wash., while approving the I-180 route.

Savings Bond Rate Hiked

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted the Treasury Department authority to raise the interest on U.S. savings bonds to 5 1/2 per cent.

The proposal, still subject to House approval, would raise the rate from 5 per cent, effective last June 1. Such action by the Treasury would be subject to approval of the president.

Sen. John Williams, R-Del., backed the provision onto an unrelated House-passed bill. He said the boost would help the average American who cannot get higher yields available to wealthy investors in the bond and real estate markets.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., suggested raising the savings bond rate to a level equal to or higher than that paid by savings and loan associations might further reduce the availability of money for new housing.

The provision passed on a voice vote.

Auto Leasing Draws Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) — The big three automakers have acknowledged that for many years they have provided luxury cars to government leaders at highly reduced lease rates.

Ford spokesman George Trainor termed the practice "a very straightforward business deal to get personalities behind the wheel of our cars."

In Congress, committee chairmen said the practice has been in effect for years and they saw nothing wrong with it, even though some of the leaseholders have occasion to deal with legislation affecting the auto industry.

Trainor said his company has made new Lincoln Continentals available to key members of Congress and other federal officials for $750 a year. The same car would cost the average customer about $3,500 for a year's lease.

At Detroit, a spokesman for General Motors said it currently is leasing 33 Cadillacs at $1,000 annually and eight smaller cars at $100 to government figures.

Army Defends Plan To Dump Gas In Ocean

Say Rockets Are Becoming More Dangerous

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defending its plan to dump 15,540 concrete-encased nerve gas rockets in the Atlantic, the Army has told Congress the rockets are virtually harmless and—in the same breath—increasingly dangerous.

"We can conceive no accident that would set the rockets off," Brig. Gen. William W. Stone told a House oceanography subcommittee Monday.

He said the Army had tested mock-ups of the rockets' 418 steel-jacketed coffins by setting off a 50-pound dynamite charge under one and firing armor-piercing bullets into another. Neither set off any test rockets which contained live explosives but none of the deadly, odorless gas, Stone said.

By contrast, however, Army Undersecretary Thaddeus R. Beal said the Army did not want to delay getting rid of the rockets because they were becoming more dangerous.

He was asked to delay the Aug. 10 date for shipping the rockets from Annapolis, Md., and Lexington, Ky., to Sunny Point, N.C., where the Army plans to load them aboard a barge to be scuttled 282 miles off Florida in 16,000 feet of water.

"We do not wish to take the responsibility of doing that," Beal replied. "Our plan is to proceed."

He said a committee of civilian specialists headed by Dr. Paul Gross of Duke University had recommended the decade-old rockets be jettisoned "without delay" because their explosive and propellant charges might be getting dangerously unstable with age.

"Time is of the essence," Beal said. He said the Gross committee's first proposal—authorizing the rockets in an underground nuclear blast—was rejected because the Atomic Energy Commission said it would take 15 months.

Later in Miami Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., said Army Secretary Stanley Resor had given him "absolute assurance" the rockets would not be shipped until the subcommittee hearings ended.

Beal said the Army planned to take maximum precautions in shipping the rockets. He said the trains would creep along at 35 miles an hour, following pilot tracks that would scout the tracks for dangers. Aerial observers would keep watch over the trains by day and searchlights would probe the night, he said.

Under present practice, the Defense Department gives advance notice to the representative or senator who makes the announcement—whether or not he had anything to do with the contract.

Special Bargain Events Scheduled During Week

Old Fashioned Days Start Wednesday

There will be old fashioned bargains by the score for the next four days, starting Wednesday in Washington C. H. stores.

For this will be the fifth annual Old Fashioned Bargain Days event.

Merchants have been preparing for Bargain Days for weeks. And people for miles around have been looking forward to them for a year.

Just about everything, from needles and pins to a houseful of furniture, from food to medicine, from clothing to appliances and from jewelry to television sets, will be there with bargain price tags.

ALTHOUGH the purpose of the merchants is to give the folks an opportunity to get more for less, they also have arranged for some interesting diversions.

Several new attractions have been added this year to go along with the old standbys — the sidewalk sales Friday and Saturday.

On Saturday, the final day, there will be an auction of new merchandise contributed by the participating merchants, along with an automobile. No money will be used; instead sales receipts from participating stores (cash, charge or lay-away slips dated Aug. 5-8) will be used by bidders.

The antique car show will open Saturday in the morning and continue all day.

THE Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will have a bazaar on the Courthouse lawn Saturday. There will be homemade cakes and pies, for sale and sandwiches, cake and pie, will be served for lunch, starting around 10:30 a.m. The proceeds will go into a fund to set up a gift shop in the hospital and for purchasing equipment. The Auxiliary has 85 senior members and 40 juniors, principally high school girls.

On the opening day, Wednesday, there will be a 10 a.m. bike-trike parade for the kids; last year a pet parade started festivities. Cash prizes of $5, $3 and $2 will be awarded for the most attractive and the same for the most original decorations. The sweepstakes award will be a new bicycle.

ON THURSDAY, PTA and PTO groups will stage a carnival on the Main Street side of the Courthouse.

The Kiwanis Club's old fashioned ice cream social, which has been so popular in the past, will be held on the Courthouse lawn Friday evening.

The most colorful part of Old Fashioned Bargain Days will come Friday and Saturday with the sidewalk sales. Merchandise of all kinds will be displayed on the sidewalks in front of the stores by clerks in old fashioned costumes.

Hurricane Destroys Towns

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)

Hurricane Celia, smashed this city and nearby towns with a devastation a senator said hasn't been equalled in an urban area since World War II, battered its way into Mexico today, still virile and destructive.

Celia's winds were clocked at 89 miles an hour at Del Rio today — well over hurricane velocity of 75 m.p.h. But the Weather Bureau refused to maintain the label of hurricane because the wind was not sustained.

Damage at Del Rio and Eagle Pass was extensive with severe winds continuing into the morning.

At least 22 persons died as Celia swept from Cuba into Mexico. No one could count the injured here, and the shocked Corpus Christi survivors made no immediate effort to assess the huge monetary losses.

Some towns were virtually wiped out in the 145-m.p.h. winds here, buildings were destroyed, and show windows drenched with glass into the streets like shrapnel.

Four were known dead and a fifth presumed drowned here.

Celia caused one death in Cuba while she still was only a storm.

On Florida's coast, 12 persons drowned because of undertows and rough waters spawned by the hurricane.

With weapons, briefcases and tools, rescue, repair and relief experts headed for Corpus Christi and its environs—when ever they could get in.

State patrolmen blocked all roads and even relatives of residents were barred. Another 200 National Guardsmen poured into the region at dawn.

There was an almost complete blackout of communications and power in Corpus Christi and surrounding areas.

There were unconfirmed reports of up to 200 persons injured in Aransas Pass and another 200 hurt in Corpus Christi.

The storm struck Corpus Christi at the height of the vacation season. Thousands of windows were blown out, and shattered glass littered the street.

Palm trees were smashed, light standards toppled, power lines felled and autos were overturned. Boats were blown out of the marina.

"It's a shambles," said Mayor Jack Blackmon.

The communities across the bay were hurt worse.

"Ninety per cent of the buildings are gone," said City Manager Gay Walker at Aransas Pass, a town of 7,000.

From Ingleside, Municipal Judge Troy Kizer said: "This place is practically wiped out."

Ninety-eight per cent of neighboring Rockport was "totally demolished," said civil defense worker Dick Hawkins.

Senate Votes To Revoke Prerogative

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appears near a showdown vote on whether to revoke a congressman's cherished prerogative to announce defense contracts awarded to firms in his district.

When a congressman makes such an announcement, argues Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., it leaves the impression of influence peddling.

Williams's amendment, attached to the $19.2 billion military procurement bill, would require all defense contract awards to be announced first by the Pentagon.

Under present practice, the Defense Department gives advance notice to the representative or senator who makes the announcement—whether or not he had anything to do with the contract.

Claim Soviet Pilots Downed In Air Battle With Israelis

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bits and pieces of evidence have convinced some U.S. sources that Soviet fliers lost an aerial battle to Israeli airmen when four MIG21 jets were downed over the Suez Canal area last week.

Neither Israel nor the United States has confirmed reports that Russians were piloting the four warplanes.

If the reports are true, it would be the first known occasion in which the Israeli air force tangled directly with Soviet pilots in combat.

American sources said they understood the MIGs were flown more aggressively than has been the case when Egyptians were known to be in the cockpit. And they said one pilot who bailed out from his stricken MIG was shown to be a blond when his helmet fell off. Many Russians are blond. Arabs have black hair.

Other reports indicate monitored radio conversations in Russian came from MIGs fighting with Israeli warplanes over Egypt last week.

The U.S. officials did not say where they got their information. But obviously they consider it accurate.

The Israelis, it is believed, are likely to avoid any public boasts of victories over Russians for fear the Soviets would be stung into a bigger and more direct battle role.

The United States is anxious to stamp down the already explosive Mideast Crisis, especially since there is movement toward a truce along the Israeli-Egyptian front.

Prospects of the truce are pegged to a U.S. cease-fire plan which prompted Israel's right-wing Gahal party to quit Prime Minister Golda Meir's coalition government early today. The walkout effectively toppled the coalition government formed more than three years ago.

Brown Sure Of Indictments By Kent State Grand Jury

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. Paul W. Brown, ordered by Gov. James Rhodes to head a special grand jury probe into the slaying of four Kent State University students, is "sure" some indictments will be returned.

But Brown stood by an earlier statement that he would be "surprised" if any Ohio National Guardsmen are charged.

The four students were shot to death May 4 during a clash with Guardsmen sent to the campus to quell campus disorders.

Rhodes ordered the special grand jury investigation Monday to determine "what, if any, criminal acts took place" when the students were shot.

The governor gave Brown "exclusive supervision and control" of the inquiry, which is to be conducted at state expense.

Brown, who said he expects the probe to begin later this month and continue through mid-September, planned to come here today to confer with Common Pleas Court Judge Edwin Jones and check courthouse facilities where the jury will be impaneled.

The Kent State campus is situated just six miles west of this Portage County seat.

Brown said he sees no reason for moving the investigation out of Portage County, but would do so if he found he was unable to impanel an impartial jury.

He said four attorneys and four investigators from his office would be assigned to the case, and a special prosecutor would be named later to help him present evidence.

"I'm going to use any information I can collect," Brown asserted, "and it will all be presented to a grand jury."

Brown would not speculate on who would be named in grand jury indictments, but added:

"On the basis of the evidence I have before me I would be surprised if any Guardsmen would be indicted."

He said he does not feel that this view and earlier statements that outsiders were involved in the disturbances and there was evidence some demonstrators were using drugs would prejudice the case.

In announcing the investigation, Rhodes declared:

"The people of Ohio and of the nation are entitled to know what, if any, criminal acts took place at Kent State and who should be charged with perpetrating them."

The governor said only a grand jury and the courts "can diminish the half-informed and misinformed commentary on Kent State that still is heard."

Seek Tate Mistrial Due To Nixon Statement

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defense attorneys in the Sharon Tate murder trial say they'll ask again for a mistrial today because President Nixon said defendant Charles M. Manson is "guilty, directly or indirectly, of eight murders without reason."

One of the lawyers, Paul Fitzgerald, said of Nixon's comments: "We know this is unprecedented in the history of jurisprudence. Seldom if ever has a president taken an interest in a state murder trial."

"I am shocked and bewildered," Fitzgerald said. "If the President of the United States is going to say this, then the ball game is over."

Nixon issued a statement later in Washington saying that he didn't intend to speculate about Manson's guilt or innocence.

"The defendants should be presumed to be innocent at this stage of their trial," he said.

Nixon's original remarks, made to newsmen at Denver, reached the courthouse at lunch recess Monday. When court resumed, all attorneys approached the bench for a conference with Superior Court Judge Charles Older. Court sources said Manson's attorney, Irving Kanarek, made a motion for a mistrial on the basis of prejudicial publicity. He was joined by attorneys Daye Shinn and Ronald Hughes.

The motion, Fitzgerald said later, was "denied without prejudice," meaning it could be renewed at a later date.

"The judge was alarmed," said Fitzgerald, "and the judge's main concern was to verify what the President had said. The judge said he wasn't sure that the President had said that."

He said the judge—who had no public comment—indicated he would rather rule on the matter after studying the President's statement.

Fitzgerald said the defense fears the jury, although sequestered, may be "tainted" by the comments, and possibly the judge as well.

He said that although the jury doesn't read newspapers or see television accounts of the case, "there are many possible leaks." Among them, he said, are visits from jurors' spouses on weekends and the chance a juror might glance at a newspaper headline while riding to and from court.

Roby Named Principal Of Junior High School

The City Board of Education Monday night named Benjamin G. Roby, who has been athletic director and history and geography teacher at WSHS, as principal of Washington Junior High School.

Roby, who received his bachelor's degree from West Virginia University and who will receive a master's degree Sept. 30, was one of three candidates for the position left vacant by the resignation of James A. Luck.

The board offered Roby a two-year contract with a salary of $11,500 the first year and $12,000 the second year. The appointment will be effective Sept. 1, pending completion of certification.

Roby had been transferred from the Junior High School to Washington Senior High School this year and was to have taught speech and world history in addition to performing the duties of athletic director.

A vacancy will exist in the speech department, according to Superintendent Marshall D. Boggs, who presented the candidates Monday night.

A native of Petersburg, W. Va., Roby attended Petersburg High School. He joined the city school system in 1964 as a junior high geography and American

Steubenville 'Dirtiest' U.S. City

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)

"The shock of being No. 1 may be the silver lining to a very dark pollution cloud," Mayor Andrew W. Miller said Monday night after learning that this Ohio River city of 34,000 had been ranked the dirtiest in the United States.

"Maybe this dubious distinction will be the impetus that will cause the various governmental subdivisions to cooperate in setting standards that will help solve the air pollution problem," the mayor said.

In preliminary 1970 air pollution rankings Monday, the National Pollution Control Administration in Washington placed Steubenville No. 1 in the category of visible particulates, such as dirt, smoke and soot. New York City was named as the most fouled with sulphur oxides.

Mayor Miller said the administration's report pointed out the need for an interstate, inter-county program for fighting air pollution in this area.

He said most of the air pollution for which Steubenville is blamed comes from industrial plants located in the Ohio River Valley to the immediate north and south of this community and from steel plants across the river in West Virginia.

Patsy De Luca, deputy control officer of the Steubenville Air Pollution Bureau, said most of the city's air pollution comes from big industrial plants, all of which use coal, located just outside the city in Jefferson County which does not have a pollution control program.

Plants in Toronto to the north and Brilliant to the south and in Weirton and Follansbee, W. Va., also are contributors, he said.

De Luca said his bureau had been monitoring the air here since the bureau was established four years ago and there has been no improvement in pollution eradication during that time.

He said all but about five per cent of the homes in Steubenville have converted to gas or electricity for heating.

"You would think that would show some improvement in the air pollution problem, but then the pollution put out by the homes was only a drop in the bucket to what is being poured into the air by the industrial plants," he added.

De Luca said Steubenville residents have to pay an average of $85 more a year for various (Please Turn To Page 15)

Make Appeal For Welfare Reform Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a crucial appeal for President Nixon's welfare reform plan, Labor Secretary James D. Hodgson vowed to the Senate Finance Committee today that the measure would "motivate people to work."

The panel poses a serious stumbling block to the House-passed legislation, with chances for approval thought to hinge on Republican members who have, so far, split with the White House.

Some GOP critics view the plan, such as one feature which would provide a minimum income of $1,600 plus $860 worth of food stamps to a family of four, as a massive giveaway encouraging persons to join the welfare rolls.

But Hodgson time and again stressed that the goal was to "help make people financially independent."

"The Family Assistance Plan," he insisted, "is not... a guaranteed income plan or a negative income tax."

"It is, instead, a complementary array of work incentives, work requirements, training and employment opportunities, child care to enable mothers to work," as well as income allowances.

Fear For Safety Of Kidnaped Men

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The U.S. Embassy says it fears for the safety of two kidnaped foreign officials—one an American—because of the Uruguayan government's refusal so far to negotiate with their guerrilla captors.

An Interior Ministry communique Monday rejected a demand by the Tupamaros rebels for the release of an estimated 150 imprisoned members of the organization as ransom for Daniel A. Mitrione, 50, an American aid adviser to the Uruguayan police, and Brazilian consul Aloysio Mares Dias Gomide, 41. The communique said Tupamaros held by the government are not political prisoners but are members of a "criminal organization."

Washington Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., called today for a 25 per cent reduction in station changes by military personnel. He said the savings would total $140 million in fiscal 1971.

By a lengthening of duty tours, Percy said, "the military families would have the opportunity to enjoy a greater degree of stability."

Percy noted the military's budget provided $1.3 billion for permanent change of station moves.

Of that amount, an estimated $460 million will go for rotation of servicemen after 12 months of duty in Southeast Asia. Percy's proposal would not affect tours in combat areas.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five justices of the Supreme Court have reported that they had no outside earned income in the first half of the year. Statements were expected but not yet filed by the other four justices.

Although not legally required to do so, the justices joined some 440 federal judges in submitting the reports, ordered last March by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Filing before the Friday deadline were Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Associate Justices William J. Brennan Jr., Harry A. Blackmun, Potter Stewart and Thurgood Marshall.

One item on the form—positions held in business or charitable organizations—brought sparse entries from all but Blackmun, the newest member, who listed membership or office in 10 groups. But he noted he had resigned from seven during the six-month period.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Careless laboratory procedures by some unlicensed, commercial producers of blood-plasma products have subjected donors to disease and, in a few cases, death, says the National Research Council.

The report Monday said that the victims include prisoners, skid-row derelicts and drug addicts who sell their blood for just a few dollars.

A special committee which prepared the report recommended new guidelines for safeguarding donors of blood plasma in so-called "plasmapheresis" programs.

Plasmapheresis is a process by which whole blood is withdrawn from the donor and separated into its liquid and formed elements—red and white cells and platelets.

The plasma, about 55 per cent of whole blood, is retained by the laboratory, while the formed elements are returned to the donor. Frequent donations by the same individual are possible without waste of red blood cells.

Michigan Voters Ballot; Mrs. Romney On Ticket

By LARRY KURTZ

Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Michigan voters select candidates for the November general election today, with the top primary race matching the wife of a Nixon Cabinet member and a conservative state senator for the Republican nomination to the Senate.

The feature race on the Democratic side of the ballot was a four-man run for the party's gubernatorial nomination.

Mrs. George Romney, 61-year-old wife of the U.S. secretary of housing and urban development, faced state Sen. Robert Huber of Troy in the GOP Senate race.

The winner will meet Sen. Phillip A. Hart, running unopposed for the Democratic nomination, in November.

The Michigan primary was one of four on the election calendar today, with polling also scheduled in Missouri, Kansas and Idaho.

In Missouri, Sen. Stuart Symington, the largest vote-getter in the state's history, faced nominal opposition from four opponents in his bid for the Democratic nomination to a fourth term.

There were no objections to the plan.

The county's Rural Zoning Commission held a hearing on the matter in Jefferson Township earlier this year.

Commissioners also held an informal hearing on the proposed extension of the Rattlesnake Sewer District lines. The extension had been requested by Donald P. Woods and Frank Sollars.

Six property owners are involved in the proposed extension area. Two of them opposed the extension Monday while Woods and Sollars continued to favor the measure. The other two landowners were not present.

Other action by commissioners included reappointing Max Laurence to the Mount Logan Hospital Board of Trustees. His term is to expire after closing of the institution in Chillicothe and buildings and equipment have been sold.

The Ohio State University Hospital and the Southeast Ohio Tuberculosis Hospital sent a letter to the commissioners advising them that their per day charge for Fayette County tuberculosis patients would be $35.

Dog Warden Reginald Davis investigated 11 reports during the week, he reported to the board.

Larceny, Vandalism Complaints Filed; Injuries Reported

City police and Fayette County sheriff's deputies handled six non-traffic reports Monday including the investigation of a larceny, two vandalism complaints and two personal injuries.

Sheriff's deputies also made an emergency blood relay run from the Franklin County Blood Bank to Fayette Memorial Hospital at 7:53 p.m. Monday.

Maxine Haley, 730 John St., reported to city police that someone entered her home and removed two rings valued at a total of $325 from the mantle sometime between July 15 and last Thursday.

Larry Huffman, 210 Ogle St., said that vandals poured a syrup substance in the gas tank of his station wagon while it was parked in his driveway over the weekend. Damage was estimated at more than $28.

CITY POLICE were called to 319 N. Main St. at 3:43 a.m. Tuesday where Mrs. Faye Lynch, 77, fell in the kitchen. Mrs. Rosa Pierson, 321 N. Main St., a neighbor, called police.

Mrs. Lynch was admitted to Fayette Memorial Hospital suffering from a possible hip fracture.

Alice Beedy, 326 W. Oak St., returning home after a week's absence, reported to police that a vandal had damaged a large window at her residence. Police set estimated loss, caused by an air pellet, at $10.

Alonzo A. Hart, 63, of 427 Earl Ave., arrested by city police for disturbing the peace by intoxication, was injured at 11:45 p.m. Monday while being incarcerated in city jail.

Officers said Hart stumbled in the jail cell and fell on the floor. He was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital for treatment of a laceration above the eye, and was returned to jail.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial nominee John J. Gilligan has named state Rep. John C. McDonald of Newark as a special campaign assistant.

Michigan Voters Ballot; Mrs. Romney On Ticket

In the Republican race, Atty. Gen. John C. Danforth was favored over Doris Bass, a member of the St. Louis Board of Aldermen.

In Kansas, Atty. Gen. Kent Fizzell was given a slight edge in a five-man field seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination. The incumbent, Democrat Robert Docking, was running unopposed in the primary as he sought an unprecedented third term.

Idaho's Gov. Don W. Samuelson, a Republican in his first four-year term, had primary opposition from former state Sen. Dick Smith. The Democratic primary for governor had a three-man field.

In the Democratic race for governor in Michigan, the favorites were former state party chairman Sander Levin and Folton Ferreny. Other candidates were state Rep. George F. Montgomery of Detroit and Macomb County Prosecutor George Parris.

On the GOP side, Gov. William Milliken faced only token primary opposition, from James Turner of Howell, a political unknown who publishes a magazine attacking wrongdoings in the legal profession.

FIRST "18" TO REGISTER to vote in Chicago is Sally Comerford, shown taking the oath at the Chicago Board of Elections in City Hall. She got there at 6:30 a.m. so she could be No. 1. Cards of those 18-21 are being filed separately so they can be destroyed if the courts overturn the law permitting 18-year-olds to vote.

POLICE Sgt. Virgil Harris Tuesday morning was on routine patrol on Blackstone Street when all at once a large white and grey-spotted horse appeared in front of his cruiser.

After a bit of investigation, Sgt. Harris found the owner, an electrician working on a new house in the area. Yet unexplained, the fact that the electrician brought two horses to work with him and had the tied to a horse trailer when one broke loose, is a bit unusual.

"I've heard of people babysitting their children while they work, but never horse-sitting," the veteran police officer said.

AFTER A nine-week absence while recuperating from an illness, Judge Reed M. Winegardner returned to Municipal Court Monday.

The Judge suffered a mild stroke in May and has been convalescing in Fayette Memorial Hospital and at his new home on CCC Highway.

Attorneys Robert L. Brubaker and William A. Lovell served the court as acting judges until the Ohio Supreme Court appointed Judge William E. Sammons, of Chillicothe, to occupy the bench in Judge Winegardner's absence.

Judge Sammons served from July 9 until Friday, the last day of his official appointment.

Stock Prices Firm Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices firmed up slightly early this afternoon but remained modestly lower. Trading was moderate.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was off 4.59 at 718.37. Earlier it had been off more than 5.

Declines led advances on the Big Board by more than 2 to 1. Analysts noted that the market was holding near the 720 support level of the Dow average.

A sharp penetration of this level could produce further selling, but a holding action would be an encouraging sign, analysts explained. News reports that the Middle East peace proposal was encountering Arab resistance also have acted as a market depressant, analysts said.

Stocks were lower in all categories except rubber issues and chemicals, which were mixed.

Big Board prices included Merck, up 2 1/4 to 83; Memorex, up 1 1/4 to 51 1/2; Pfizer, off 1/4 to 28 1/2; Boeing, off 1/4 to 13; Xerox, off 1/4 to 70 1/2; and Eastman Kodak, up 1/4 to 61 1/4.

A block of 101,500 shares of Niagara Mohawk Power changed hands at 14, off 1/2.

McGovern Raps 'Slur'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S., has accused the Veterans Administration chief of a "mindless slur" in saying antiwar senators favor a surrender to communism.

McGovern released today a letter he sent to VA Administrator Donald E. Johnson. McGovern said he was replying to a statement made by Johnson against 26 Senate members seeking to fix deadlines for U.S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam.

Johnson's statement, McGovern said, was "a mindless slur far beneath the standards of conduct we should be able to expect from responsible government officials."

McGovern quoted Johnson as saying in a speech to Disabled American Veterans in Los Angeles a week ago that antiwar senators are "in favor of surrender to the forces of communism and totalitarianism, not only in Vietnam but also almost everywhere else in the world."

The South Dakotan wrote, "Among the senators you slur are at least 17 combat veterans who hold many decorations for their valor and courage under fire."

Airport Notes

By JUDY DENNIS

SUNDAY — We spent a quiet Sunday, due to the runway still being closed for resurfacing. It was just as well, as it gave us a chance to recuperate from our two days at Coney Island and the Zoo. We had taken Todd for a little vacation, since we could do little here. Todd really enjoyed himself, but his dad is suffering from a whiplash injury to his neck — the result of a ride in a miniature car with Todd at the wheel.

MONDAY — It was still hot and stifling, but Bill and I plowed through paper work which we had been neglecting.

TUESDAY — The paving company finished, and as they were pulling out in their trucks, impatient pilots were getting their planes warmed up. It really was good to hear the roar of engines after almost a week's inactivity.

Tom Hudson flew over from Hillsboro to pick up some supplies we had ordered for him, and Ed Pendergraft took off in his J-3 Cub. Bill Barbor went for his recommendation ride with Warren Coil, in preparation for his flight test, and Howard Wright received dual instruction. Bud Crissinger was flying his Skyhawk, and Larry Soldan came in for fuel in his natty little Champ. Sid Terhune received instruction, and then Bill soloed him. Sid was really elated, as anyone could tell by his war whoop when he taxied in. Bud Shaw rented the Skyhawk to take some friends a ride, and Kenny Smith took a buddy with him in the Cessna 150.

WEDNESDAY — Max Ours has purchased a half interest in a Piper Tri-Pacer owned by Wayne Ingles of Mount Sterling. Bill checked him out in it, after which Max flew it to Ross County. Tim Rannels braved the terrible heat for some practice flying in one of the trainers, and Curt Hiser also flew solo. Bill flight-tested Gene Stanton of the Columbus Southwest Airport, and then flew to Ross County to instruct there.

Paul Stuckey took his son, Kirk, and a family friend, Alan Bradshaw, for a ride in the Skyhawk, and Hoyt Penn came in for fuel in his Taylor-Craft. Bill flight-tested Bill Barbor of Wilmington, and issued him his private license. Howard Wright received the results of his written test, and we were pleased to hear that he passed. These tests are given by the Federal Aviation Agency, and are pretty difficult.

THURSDAY — This was a red letter day for us, as we received the approval from the State Department of Education to start our flying school for veterans. It took mountains of paper work, but it was worth it. Several of the pilots had been waiting for this, so they could enroll for their commercial license, instrument, instructor's course and multi-engine course. Stephen Swain came from Wilmington on a student cross-country flight in the CAP's Piper Colt, and Jack Lindeman came from Mad River Airport in a Cessna 172. Craig Beam was flying his Cessna 170, practicing his commercial maneuvers.

FRIDAY — Jim Roberds was practicing his turns and glides, solo, and Dana Dunsiehl was also flying. Bill flight-tested Danny Lyons of Xenia, and then flew down to Ross County. Jim and Paul Rodenfels flew to Van Wert on business, and J. Lyle, Hillsboro, stopped in with one of his students on a cross-country flight.

Warren Coil went with Craig Beam to "shoot" instrument approaches at Port Columbus, and Sid Terhune flew solo, practicing his take-offs and landings. Bruce Norris was also flying solo, and Bud Shaw and Carol McCoy went for a ride in the other trainer.

Craig Beam was hungry and decided it would be fun to grill hamburgers at the airport. He and Steve Warner confiscated my grill from the house, and returned with the necessary supplies. However, before I knew it, I was the one grilling hamburgers with a request to call them on the radio when the hamburgers were done, and they would land.

In the midst of the cook-out the Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, Howard Metzenbaum came from Cleveland in a twin-engine Cessna. He was met at the airport by a small crowd and taken to the Fairground.

Another interesting traveler came in today. He had flown all the way from Bolivia, South America, in a Super Cub. John Sullivan, a Catholic priest in Santa Cruz, was on his way to Boston to have his plane overhauled. It took Father Sullivan 70 hours to get here, and he had 50-gallon drum of fuel, plus a young Bolivian boy in the back seat.

Don Morrow was busily taking friends rides in his Mooney. Don has really traveled by air, this summer, flying to Boston, Cape Cod, New Orleans, Portland, Vicksburg and Ticonderoga. Mike Thompson flew John Purcell over the Fair after dark to get some photographs for The Record-Herald. Also after dark, I went with Bill and Millard French to make some instrument approaches into Port Columbus in the Apache. It was my first experience to observe this procedure, and it was very interesting to hear the tower telling Bill what headings to take, when to turn, etc. Bill had a hood over his face, which permitted him to see the instruments in the cockpit only, but by the time the tower was through talking to him, we'd be lined up perfectly with the runway. I'll tell you this, however, although he couldn't see what he was doing, I was sure keeping a sharp look-out!

SATURDAY — Charles Hawkins finished the required time on his maneuvers, and is now ready for his first phase check. These checks are part of our new FAA approved flying school. Steve Jette went for his first solo student cross-country flight, which is always a big moment in a student's life. Paul Stuckey and Craig Beam were both flying, and Bill flight-tested John Lindeman, a student from Mad River Airport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dyall came in for fuel in their Cessna 172. They had also stopped here, last week, on their way out West on a vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Dyall were returning home to Lancaster, Pa., after what they stated was a very enjoyable trip. Mr. and Mrs. David Sunday, of Farmington, Mich., also stopped for fuel. They were returning to Michigan after dropping their son at Bainbridge to spend the week at the Valley Vista boys camp.

It's hard to believe that it's the first of August, and the summer is so far gone. It seems only yesterday that the planes were covered with coats of ice. It was a winter we won't soon forget, and I dread to think about it coming again. However, this week has been very hot and miserable, and I'm glad it's over. Come see us.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Public Utilities Commission has ordered Ohio Bus Line, Inc., to postpone plans for a 30 per cent service cut Aug. 16 to a number of southwestern Ohio cities, including Dayton, Middletown, Hamilton, Oxford and Cincinnati.

The firm was ordered not to reduce service until Dec. 13, allowing time for an investigation and hearings. The PUCC said it had received more than 100 complaints about the service reduction.

Parents Say Body Son's

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police say Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Willis are certain a dead child found along railroad tracks on Columbus' near east side is their 11-month-old son, Eric, who was kidnapped from his home July 25.

The parents positively identified the blanket in which the dead child was found as the one their son was sleeping under the night he was taken, according to Police Sgt. James R. Carr.

Positive identification of the body is impossible because of its badly decomposed state. There has been no official ruling on the cause of death, but police said the child's skull was cracked.

Mr. And Mrs. Charles Snyder Spend Honeymoon In Montana

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES E. SNYDER

The First Christian Church and the wedding ushers were Les Van Dyne and Keith Sullivan, both of Frakfort, the latter a cousin of the bride.

The Rev. Ray Russell officiated at the double-ring ceremony before a background of white candelabra and two baskets of white gladioli and mums. White bows marked the family pews.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. Estep, 902 Pearl St., and Mr. E. O. Snyder, 411 Broadway, and Mrs. Helen Snyder.

Mrs. Coyt Stookey presented a half-hour of organ music. David Rolfe was the vocalist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza and Chantilly lace. The A-line silhouette featured a Sabrina neckline, lace sleeves with deep cuffs, lace bodice and empire waistline. The lace bonnet enhanced the chapel-length mantilla. She carried a hand embroidered handkerchief, which was a gift, and an arrangement of miniature sweetheart roses.

Miss Karan Estep was maid of honor for her sister and Mrs. Steven Dawson, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. They both wore floor-length gowns of blue silk. The A-line skirt was fashioned with baby doll sleeves and high collar. A crystal blue pouff of silk illusion completed the ensemble. Both carried a single white rose with flowing blue ribbons.

Little Miss Becky Laessle, of Bainbridge, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a crystal blue gown identical to that of the other attendants, and carried a white miniature basket filled with baby blue and white carnations.

Restrictive Trade Bill Under Attack

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A restrictive trade bill now before Congress would bring a general rise in consumer prices by cutting off foreign competition, according to Virginia Knauer, President Nixon's special assistant for consumer affairs.

"When we say 'no' to foreign imports we are penalized by reduced competition and we pay more for shoes, more for watches, more for the necessities of life," she told the American Institute of Cooperatives meeting here Monday.

GE Workers File Complaint

CINCINNATI (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board will hold a hearing Sept. 30 on a complaint by fourteen General Electric Co. employees who contend three unions fined them for crossing picket lines.

The employees, who work at GE's suburban Evendale plant, said they were fined $100 to $1,371 each for crossing lines during a nationwide strike against GE last fall.

They filed an unfair labor practice complaint Monday with the NLRB. Unions charged were Local 20 of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 647 of the United Auto Workers, and Lodge 912 of the International Association of Machinists.

The earliest piano in existence is the Cristofori piano built in Florence in 1720 and now preserved in the Krause Museum of Florence.

'Know Your Dealer', Is C. Of C. Advice

There's an old adage which says: "Let the buyer beware."

That's good advice now, more than ever before, says Delbert E. Marstiller, executive vice president of the Washington C. H. Area Chamber of Commerce.

"We've had dozens of calls during the last few weeks from people asking about peddlers," he said. He added that many of the "peddlers" have been investigated but that so far as could be determined there was no fraud and no outright misrepresentation. "It's just been a case of high pressure selling for the most part," he said.

Marstiller emphasized that, while the Chamber welcomes calls, it gives no endorsements, although as much information as possible will be passed along. All peddlers — a general term Marstiller applied to house-to-house non-resident salesmen — are expected to register with the Chamber of Commerce, but the manager stressed that this constitutes neither a license nor an endorsement.

CITY MANAGER Clarence Christman said the peddlers also were expected to register at City Hall but that there is no city ordinance requiring a license. The only restriction, he said, is on house-to-house solicitation between 8 p.m. and 9 a.m.

He commented, however, that if fraud or misrepresentation is suspected, formal charges may be filed and that the police and prosecutor will take the case from there.

Marstiller said: "This is the time of year when we can expect this sort of thing" and noted that among the peddlers who have registered are those selling magazines, glassware and paint jobs. Some probably are reputable; others may not be.

The most recent, and most numerous, inquiries received by the Chamber of Commerce have been about exterminators, Marstiller said.

Both Marstiller and Christman stressed that there are in Washington C. H. reputable stores and dealers to supply almost every kind of material and service. They suggested that, to be on the safe side, the people should rely on local places for whatever they need or want.

and dean of girls for Washington Senior High School to replace Miss Marjorie Evans, who recently retired.

On Boggs' recommendation, Mrs. Kirkpatrick was employed on a 10-months basis without the additional increment, pending completion of necessary courses for the position. Her salary will be $6,388 annually.

A physical education major with a degree from Adrin College, Adrian, Mich., Mrs. Kirkpatrick was a 1966 Miami Trace High School graduate. She and her husband, Roger Kirkpatrick, live at 554 Washington Ave.

LARRY ADAMS, a graduate of Ontario High School who holds a masters degree in music from Ohio State University, was employed as vocal music instructor for both the Junior and Senior high schools.

Adams, who is married, is presently living in Columbus where he has been employed as director of a church choir while completing work on his master's degree.

He will receive a salary of $6,268 plus increments of $200 for one production and choir director, respectively.

MRS. RENEE SNIDER, a graduate of Central Catholic High School, Toledo, with a bachelor of science degree from Bowling Green State University, was employed as a Junior High School English teacher with a salary of $5,750.

Superintendent Boggs reported that present teacher vacancies include a business education instructor for the Senior High School and a math teacher at the Junior High School. An athletic director will also be employed.

Resignations accepted Monday night included those of Charles Newland, a Junior High School math teacher, and Ernest Rauenhorst, custodian at Cherry Hill School.

"WE NEED an intelligent evaluation of menus in the Senior High School cafeteria," remarked Dr. Byers W. Shaw, board president, as a discussion arose regarding the deficit operation of the cafeteria last year.

Although the Junior and Senior High school cafeterias together finished the year with a carryover balance of $2,578, the balance the year before was greater, Boggs reported. The actual 1969-70 operation was $1,124 in the red, he said.

Boggs suggested that an increase in lunch prices was in order at the high school where the students would prefer short order-type meals.

Board member Mark Schaeper agreed with Dr. Shaw. He commented, "we need better meals even if it calls for an increase." Dr. Shaw suggested that a survey of students be made before the board takes action.

OLD TIRES FOR FISHING—This old tire is pulled from the water encrusted with marine growth after two years as part of a man-made fishing reef. It is part of a 10-year study being made by Goodyear of what to do with the nation's 1.5 billion worn-out tires each year. A Department of Interior official says old tires can be made into reefs that turn offshore sand flats into a paradise of game fish.

repair walls at Cherry Hill School at a cost of $2,160; painting of other buildings will be delayed until more funds are available;

Approved payment of $375 to Carroll Halliday, Inc., for lease of a station wagon for spring sports and use by the superintendent;

Instructed Superintendent Boggs to make a study and a recommendation in the need for a pickup truck to be used to transport football equipment to out-of-town games;

Considered a revised resolution presented to the board by the City Teachers Association setting down negotiation procedures with the Board of Education, but took no official action since no CTA representatives were present at the meeting;

Gave tentative approval to Jay-Mac Television Productions to video-tape home football games for re-broadcast on cable television at 11 a.m. on Saturdays, subject to approval from visiting teams; an agreement is to be presented at the next board meeting;

Tabled a proposal from the Fayette County Health Department which would offer the city schools extended services at a cost of $3,000; the board also discussed an alternate plan of employing its own registered nurse, but took no action.

Authorized the clerk to invest $59,118 in U. S. Treasury Bills maturing in October and yielding 6.22 per cent interest. The money was in the Bond Retirement Fund.

Octa Council Meets

OCTA — The Village Council held a routine meeting Monday night. Only business was authorization for payment of the monthly electric bill and insurance premiums.

Fulbright Says Use Of TV By President 'Dangerous'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said today that easy presidential access to television represents a "dangerous, unchecked power."

"There is nothing in the Constitution which says that, of all elected officials, the President alone shall have the right to communicate with the American people," declared the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee.

"That privilege was a gift of modern technology, coming in an age when chronic war and crisis were already inflating the powers of the presidency," he added.

Fulbright testified as a Senate communications subcommittee opened hearings into a bill he is sponsoring to require television networks to provide Congress and the judiciary a minimum of four free opportunities each year to lay their views before the public.

"As strongly as possible," Fulbright said, "it should be emphasized that the focus of this bill is institutional—not partisan."

Fulbright said whatever the argument for or against broadcast time for political parties, there can be no justification for denying equal time to co-equal branches of government.

"Although the bill does not say so explicitly," said Fulbright, "it is implicit in the proposal that congressional access to the media would not simply be a matter of responding to presidential speeches or interviews."

"It might of course be used for that purpose, but, under this bill Congress would have the right to report to the nation on its own initiative," he said.

On such occasions, he added, the President would be given a chance to respond if he wanted to.

Ohio Northern Medal Planned By Treasury

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury will strike 16,000 medals commemorating the 100th anniversary of Ohio Northern University.

A bill sponsored by Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, and approved by both houses of Congress, provides that the medals be furnished at a price equivalent to the manufacturing cost.

Jarring Schedules Meeting With Mideast Delegations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
U. N. Envoy Gunnar V. Jarring scheduled his first talks with Arab and Israeli representatives in New York today on the U.S. peace proposal for the Middle East.

Libyan leader Muammar Kaddafi was in Baghdad trying to smooth out differences between Egypt, which accepted the plan, and Iraq, which denounced it. A strategy conference of Arab defense and foreign ministers was postponed, awaiting the outcome of Kaddafi's peacemaking.

In Tel Aviv, the right-wing Gahal party voted Monday night to quit Premier Golda Meir's coalition government in protest of Israel's acceptance of the plan. The walkout was not expected to affect Israeli policy since the other coalition parties still control 72 of the 120 seats in Israel's parliament.

Jarring, who returned to New York Sunday to resume mediation between the Arabs and Israelis, arranged separate meetings today with chief U.N. delegates—Abdullah El-Erian of Egypt, Muhammad El-Farra of Jordan and Yosef Tekoa of Israel. He also planned to meet with the U.N. ambassadors from the Big Four nations—the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union—who have been trying for months to agree on a peace formula for the Middle East.

The meetings with the Arab and Israeli diplomats were considered preliminaries. Talks to set up the 90-day cease-fire proposed by the United States are not expected to start until Israel follows up its announcement of acceptance of the U.S. plan with an official statement setting forth its reservations and conditions, as Egypt and Jordan have done.

Jarring met Monday afternoon with U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and Secretary of State William P. Rogers, who presented the American proposal to Jordan, Israel and Egypt on June 19.

Thant said the meeting was "very useful and constructive" and that "all aspects of the U.S. proposal, including replies received by the U.S. government," were discussed. Rogers said it was a "very useful meeting . . . about the steps that may be taken in the future."

New Holland Council Holds Short Session

NEW HOLLAND — With only four of the six members of the Village Council present, the Monday night session was one of the shortest in a long time.

There was some informal discussion of village affairs, but the only official business was the approval of routine bills totaling $1,742.99.

Mayor Lincoln Schwartz presided.

Former Glidden President Dies

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Former Glidden Co. President Dwight P. Joyce died in suburban Lakewood Monday. He was 70.

Joyce, who was born in Memphis, Mich., and graduated from the University of Michigan, was elected president of the company in 1947 and served as chairman of the board from 1955 until his retirement in 1967. Joyce served in various capacities with the company after graduating from college in 1921, and in 1927 was elected a director. He was named a vice president in 1934.

A 1965 Miami Trace High School graduate, he entered the Army in 1967 after two years at Ohio State University.

Orchestra Votes Not To Accept Proposed Pact

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Orchestra has voted 84-14 not to accept a proposed new three-year contract from the Musical Arts Association.

New talks now will have to be started between the association and Local 4 of the American Federation of Musicians. The proposed pact, rejected Monday, would have provided pay increases from the current weekly minimum of $255 to $265 the first year, $272.50 the second and $280 the third.

The proposed contract also called for three additional holidays, increased per diem allowances for tours and limitations on the length of concerts.

Even though the contract has been rejected, a separate vote is needed before the orchestra can call a strike.

Delta Queen Fireproofing Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three safety officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration were preparing a report today on the possibility of fireproofing the Delta Queen.

The men took a ride on the nation's only remaining overnight passenger riverboat Monday as it sailed from Portsmouth, Ohio, toward Cincinnati.

William Muster, president of Greene Line Steamers Inc., which owns the Delta Queen, had enlisted the aid of NASA because the 1966 Safety-At-Sea law commands total fireproof construction for any passenger vessel in overnight service.

The superstructure of the Queen is wood, and moves to have the Delta Queen permanently exempted from the law have been unsuccessful. The riverboat has been granted extensions to operate until Nov. 2.

The fireproofing techniques considered for the Delta Queen would be the same as those used with space capsules.

Greene Line officials in Cincinnati said they were uncertain when the report would be completed but that it would be submitted to either the U. S. Coast Guard or the Department of Transportation.

There was no indication of the feelings of the three men after the trip Monday — the first ever on the vessel.

Happy Birthday, Boardwalk!

By MIKE REMAS
Central Press Association
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. — That New Jersey tourist mecca that annually draws 16 million visitors to its sandy beach and numerous other attractions — is paying tribute to its famed Boardwalk, now in its 100th year.

Known the world over as the home of saltwater taffy, the "Miss America" Pageant, and the Steel Pier, the resort city is perhaps best known for its Boardwalk, first built and dedicated in 1870.

About six miles long, 60 feet wide, and railed, the wooden way separates its numerous hotels, motels, hot dog stands, amusements, and other attractions from the wide expanse of beach fronting on the Atlantic Ocean.

This time of year, it bustles with everything from people wearing bathing suits to business suits, women pushing baby strollers, happy children, conventioners, senior citizens, and countless others.

WHY a Boardwalk?

The city council paid $5,000 to build the first one, two miles long and eight feet wide, after it was petitioned to do so by a hotel owner and a railroad conductor who demanded that their patrons be given "a wooden footwalk along the beachfront" to stomp the sand off their feet, thereby eliminating it from their hotel and train.

So, the first walkway went up, built near the shore's edge and collapsible so it could be disassembled and stored in barns each winter.

The frugality kept it for only 10 years, however, and in 1880 the second was built, two miles long and 10 feet wide. Like the first, it catered to the carriage trade as well as walkers.

A STORM in 1883 destroyed the second Boardwalk, and an ATLANTIC CITY'S famous 100-year-old Boardwalk. That's the Steel Pier in background.

1889 hurricane destroyed the third, which was 20 feet wide and five feet above the sand.

The fourth, 24 feet wide and 10 feet high, lasted until 1896, when the present Boardwalk was erected, bigger, better, and anchored in steel and concrete to withstand storms and tides.

Today's Boardwalk leads to the front doors of Convention Hall, the largest room in the world, and five piers. The hall cover seven acres, seats 40,000 persons, and has other rooms which can hold 20,000 more.

Four of the piers, the most famous of which is the Steel Pier, offer family amusements, while the fifth stages concerts.

ALTHOUGH today's Boardwalk extends for about six miles, it reached more than eight miles before a storm damaged it again in 1944. While it was not all rebuilt at that time, annual refurbishing today costs about $250,000 and is in the year-around hands of about a dozen carpenters.

Triennial upkeep runs about $250,000 to $400,000. Estimates are that replacement of the entire Boardwalk would cost about $5 million dollars.

However, the Boardwalk's value to Atlantic City is evident in the fact that the 16 million visitors spend an estimated $500 million annually on everything from saltwater taffy to diamonds and rare rugs.

HOSTING so many sun-and-fun-seekers requires rooms, and for this purpose 12 plush motels and 11 posh hotels line the Boardwalk, with hundreds of others available on streets leading to it.

In all, there are 2,100 hotels, motels, and cottages offering a total of 31,000 rooms, mostly within a short distance of the Boardwalk. Small wonder the city draws numerous conventions.

The Boardwalk itself can claim many "firsts," the most popular being its saltwater taffy, reputedly named by a shop owner whose candy stock was drenched by the sea but founded that the taffy, protected by bags, was eaten with relish by children he gave it to.

Today, 20 million pounds are sold annually, and it's a $12 million business.

As it marks its 100th birthday, the Boardwalk also can lay claim to the nation's first Ferris wheel, the ice cream cone, the picture postal card (introduced from Germany), rolling chairs (since 1887), the Easter Parade, and the "Miss America" Contest (since 1921).

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A watchdog at a used car lot stood his ground against all comers Sunday night.

He chased off a would-be burglar, then took out after police officers summoned to investigate the disturbance.

The dog held one officer at bay atop his patrol car for about five minutes before other patrolmen managed to calm him down.

Smog Moves Out

NEW YORK (AP) — A mass of dry air pushed into the city early Sunday ending nine days of haze, high pollution and soggy humidity. The Weather Bureau predicted generally good weather for the next few days.

There are brown velveteen accents in the standup collar, side-buttoned closing and cuffs, and the belt is brown velveteen.

Ohio's 'Mod Squad' Has Good Record Against Drugs

By LARR VHEINERLING
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio has its own "Mod Squad" — a move by state officials to break the back of drug peddling operations in Ohio.

It employs college-aged men who, dressed in the hippie styles of the underground drug culture, penetrate dope rings, make "buys" and turn the evidence over to local law enforcement agencies.

"What I need is a strange face," said a narcotics agent in Dayton, who says local "narc" undercover men are now well known to area pushers.

"So they sent a couple of kids up here and did a beautiful job. They run a pretty good outfit."

It was for this very reason that the narcotics section of the Division of Criminal Activities of the attorney general's office was created.

It has been in existence just over a year, operates on an annual budget of $188,968 and has earned considerable praise from local police across the state.

Al Cook, who heads the section, says its main functions are to assist in investigations and to educate law enforcement personnel about drugs, their users and how to make successful "busts."

"We have trained people we loan to sheriffs and police departments who are used as undercover agents," says a department spokesman.

"We also hold seminars to bring the latest techniques to individual police who are unable to attend regular schools."

Cook says more than 1,000 law enforcement officers have attended the department's two-day seminars.

The department boasts a 100 per cent conviction record in the more than 270 cases it has been involved in since its creation, although its agents do not have the power to make arrests.

"We have excellent cooperation from the state," says a Toledo police officer. "We have a constant exchange with Cook,

He calls us, we call him. There has never been an occasion when we asked for help that it wasn't given."

The department's attempts to coordinate law enforcement efforts involving drugs, or as Cook puts it, "trying to insure smooth working relationships," faces a formidable problem — inter-agency jealousy.

"There's jealousy between police departments and county sheriffs," says one officer in northern Ohio.

Other police, in large cities, say there is plenty of inter-city coordination and agreed in principle with the remark of a Dayton narcotics agent, who said: "Let's start getting some thieves off the street and stop worrying about who gets the credit. I've had some of the finest successes when I've worked with other agencies."

Suggestions from police on means of improving a statewide drive against drug traffic abound.

"Coordination could be improved," says one officer, "by local enforcement officials informing the state about what's going on. It's our obligation to give the state more information so it can see the bigger problem more clearly."

This is music to Cook's ears.

He says he hopes eventually to circulate a newsletter to all law enforcement agencies with up to date information on drug arrests, drug traffic, peddlers and the latest gimmicks on the market.

Another officer says Metropolitan Enforcement Groups (MEGS), a narcotics squad made up of officers from several surrounding police departments, is the only answer to calls for more coordination.

The chief of the Cleveland district office of the U.S. Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Don Howard, says his department is "making a concerted effort to encourage local departments to form MEGS."

He said, "This will give local officers more efficiency. Each department contributes one or more men to a special unit concentrating just on drug enforcement and with jurisdiction in a particular area."

Howard says one has already been established by cities in Stark County and another is being formed by cities in Mahoning, Trumbull and Ashtabula counties.

Others say eventual use of a state-wide communications network operated by the Bureau of Criminal Identification will prove invaluable.

The idea is to reinformation in computers on all law violators, including drug offenders, which would be available on tap to any police department hooked up to the system.

While the legislature has authorized the establishment of such a system it has not provided funds for it.

The state is expected to seek federal funding for the project this year as well as monies from the legislature when it reconvenes.

There are, too, the inevitable calls for more funds and manpower.

Another complaint uncovered in a survey of police departments was that the state agency does not have enough men to fill all the requests it receives for "loaning" undercover agents.

Cook says he too wishes more funds were available to hire more agents. "Once we've used one in a case and he's appeared in court he's been 'burned' and is useless in that city. We need more men to send in there."

A final complaint, which was common, was a call for quicker court action.

"We feel that this long delay between arrest and final verdict," said a Columbus agent, "isn't helping us at all. We have to speed up the court process in some way."

Good Samaritan Has A Close Call

SYDNEY (AP) — Shopkeeper George Wall's automobile just managed to pass under a power line sagging towards a main road.

To warn other motorists of the hazard at Newcastle, New South Wales, Wall tied a white shirt rag to the line and then reported the danger to police.

He didn't realize just how dangerous it was — the live line carried 11,000 volts. Electricity linemen are under orders never to work within three feet of such a line.

"I didn't know whether the line was live so I flicked a white shirt rag over it," said Wall, 63. "Nothing happened so I tied the shirt to the line."

Wall, who was accompanied by his 12-year-old grandson, added, "I reckon we were fortunate. If it hadn't been so windy I might have had an aluminum boat on top of my car."

Miami U. Prexy To Speak At WC Founders' Event

WILMINGTON — Dr. Phillip Shriver, president of Miami University, will be the guest speaker at the Centennial Founder's Day luncheon to be held on the Wilmington College campus on Aug. 11.

in pro football. If it is not a $10 million law suit, it is a Paul Hornung-Alex Karras gambling problem. If it is not a new television contract, it is Joe Namath and Bachelors III. If it is not expansion, it is merger and realignment.

Through it all Rozelle stands tall in the saddle, guiding the sport to the point where it generally is accepted as the top spectator diversion of the nation.

In recent days the player strike and pension dispute challenged his position by attacking certain aspects of his power.

The players have attempted to line him up with management as an employer but later dropped the request. He agreed to name an arbiter in injury grievance cases but all other aspects of his authority remained unchanged.

If it were not for Rozelle's persuasive powers there would have been no federal mediation by the owners in this bitter struggle that shattered training camps and threatened to wipe out the preseason schedule.

Take this from one who knows. "Pete Rozelle certainly was important to the situation," said Curtis Counts, Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service Director. "It's a good thing they used his offices to settle it. The football commissioner is sort of a czar over 26 owners who are independent individuals, tied together in the bargaining. The 'czar' role of the commissioner has no counterpart in other industries that engage in collective bargaining."

Take your time. Talk to all sides. Listen carefully. Let others project their ideas. Then step in quickly. That is the Rozelle formula.

It worked once again in the pension dispute. The two groups debated for months. Rozelle did his best to keep in touch with both sides. After federal mediation was tried, the two groups withdrew and sparred at sword's length. Rozelle made the moves that helped bring them together over the weekend.

At 1:30 a.m. Monday the 26 NFL club executives and the seven members of the players' committee were all in Rozelle's league office. Pete, in and out of his office all day and night, was constantly involved.

It is worth noting that when the dispute finally was settled, there was not the usual news conference. Each side issued a brief statement and went home. Rozelle remained in the background.

This was to have been a year of stabilization, a season to solidify gains and start planning for the end of the decade when six more teams will be added to form a balanced 32-team league, split into eight four-team divisions.

Conflict with the players rocked the boat. Now that calm has been restored, the master plan for the future will be implemented step by step.

A little more than 10 years ago, Jan. 26, 1960, the NFL owners, reaching out for a compromise candidate after days and nights of dispute, selected Rozelle to succeed the late Bert Bell as commissioner. Under Bell, the NFL had survived World War II and a fierce dollar skirmish with the All-American Conference to establish itself as a flourishing sport with an awesome future.

Under Rozelle, the league expanded from 12 teams to 16 and finally to 26 after a peaceful merger brought an end to the baby sitting bonus war with the American Football League.

Television revenue, equally divided among all the clubs after Rozelle persuaded Congress to legalize single network contracts with sports leagues, has increased from $1.8 million to an estimated $150 million four-year contract with all three networks. Attendance has boomed to the point where fans leave season tickets to favorite heirs in their wills and sellouts are the order of the day.

Rozelle, of course, didn't do it all by himself. But he has been the guiding hand behind most of the gains. As Art Rooney, the pioneer owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, once said, "Pete Rozelle is a gift from the hand of Providence."

Wazevich Wants Job As Browns' Receiver

HIRAM —The film entitled "The Best of Bill Wazevich" may not be a Warner Brothers or Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer box-office attraction but it proved to be quite a hit with the Cleveland Browns.

Bill Wazevich, a 6-1, 184-pound rookie wide receiver from Columbia University, fully expected to be selected in the NFL draft last January. "I was waiting at Columbia for a call, but after the 15th round I knew it would never come," says Wazevich. "Then I went home for a few days to collect my thoughts and figure out what to do."

Wazevich found that his hometown Browns had drafted one receiver, so he called Paul Bixler, the Browns' player personnel director, and asked for a tryout. When Bixler expressed some interest, Wazevich, aided by his college coaches, produced a film of his collegiate highlights. Bixler liked what he saw and the Browns signed "Waz" to a contract.

Bill brought some impressive credentials with him into camp. He holds Columbia career records in receptions with 102 and receiving yardage with 1,333. In the first Ivy-League game of his career, he grabbed 12 passes for 214 yards, both being league records. A broken wrist in his senior year limited him to just 10 receptions.

Bill was named All-Ivy League twice and was given honorable mention on the All-East team, capping his fine Ivy-League career.

Asked about his chances for the coming season, Wazevich remarked, "I'd like to think my chances have improved since coming to camp. Camp has been pretty tough on me because I'm the only receiver on the right side and I have to run every play in drills. It has enabled me to get in pretty good shape, although I was in good shape when I arrived."

Bob Nussbaumer, coach of the Browns' receivers, says, "Waz is a hard-working kid, and quite coachable. He realizes he doesn't have great speed, so he must run precise patterns to get the edge on the defender. Bill has good hands and has a good chance to make this team depending on what he does in exhibition play."

Coach Blanton Collier's appraisal: "We're impressed. Bill has good speed, good hands, and runs a good pattern. He has a knack of getting open. Yes, there's little doubt about his talent."

Bill holds a B. A. from Columbia, having majored in economics. He will enter a management - trainee program in the off-season with the Union Commerce Bank in Cleveland.

The best-known Ivy Leaguers in pro ball now are Marty Domres of San Diego (Bill's quarterback at Columbia) and Clyn Hill, the Cowboys' brilliant running back from Yale. Bill Wazevich would like to make it the "Big Three" and don't be too surprised if he does.

After the National Football League Players' Association ended its strike Monday, carpenters and ironworkers converting Riverfront Stadium for football became involved in a jurisdictional dispute. Each union claims the right to erect and dismantle the outfield fence and sections of stands.

The carpenters walked out, halting conversion work after some had been performed.

The walkout "is hurting us very seriously," said Francis Cornelius, principal engineer for the city. He added that if the walkout would end today he did not know whether conversion of the stadium could be completed in time for the game.

The Redskins are scheduled to work out at the stadium Friday afternoon.

The Bengals, minus several players, went through a light workout at their practice field here Monday night. Coach Paul Brown said that the team will practice three times a day through Friday.

James Hylton Leads In NASCAR Points
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — James Hylton, an independent Ford driver from Inman, S.C., has recaptured the lead in NASCAR's Grand National championship point standings.

Hylton regained first place Sunday in the Dixie 500 at Atlanta when Bobby Isaac fell victim to engine failure after 83 laps.

July 8 and his first complete game since May 15 when he also beat the Pirates.

Bob Bailey hammered a three-run homer that climaxed a six-run Expo explosion in the fourth inning. McGinn, meanwhile, did not allow a hit after the second against the Pirates, who had 37 hits in their two games over the weekend against Atlanta.

The Pirates' one-game lead in the NL East remained intact when New York returned to Chicago and Ferguson Jenkins on a three-hitter.

Jenkins held the Mets hitless for six innings and Johnny Callison tagged a homer for the Cubs. Chicago moved to within 2½ games of first place but suffered a serious blow when pitcher Bill Hands was taken to Roosevelt Hospital suffering from acute appendicitis.

St. Louis used home runs by Carl Taylor, Julian Javier and Jose Cardenal to beat Philadelphia. Mike Torrez allowed five hits to earn the victory.

Ollie Brown powered the Padres past Cincinnati, driving in five runs with a homer and a double. Clay Kirby rode the heavy San Diego hitting to the victory, scattering 11 hits.

Homers by Willie McCovey and Jim Hart moved San Francisco past Los Angeles as rookie Lee Pillok bested Bill Singer. McCovey's 26th of the year climaxed a four-run first for the Giants.

Players Flood Training Camps As Grid Strike Ends

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League was back in business today with everyone happy about the settlement of the game's first strike and getting in shape for the start of preseason play.

The most serious labor dispute in the history of American professional sports—which even unprecedented federal mediation failed to resolve—ended Monday following a marathon 22-hour session involving executives of all 26 clubs and the entire seven-man players' committee.

Quarterbacking the action at the league's Park Avenue office was Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who finally stepped out of his role as a supposedly neutral observer, brought both sides together and kept them there until they reached agreement.

The four-year, $19.1-million package involves $4,535,000 a year in owners' contributions to the players' pension fund—the amount the owners had offered at the start of the dispute—plus $250,000 a year in disability, widow, maternity and dental benefits—the owners' apparent compromise since their previous offer.

Thus the players are getting $7.9 million more through the life of this pact than they did under the old one when the owners contributed $2.8 million a year in pensions and benefits for an $11.2 million four-year total.

Within minutes of the announcement of the agreement, players began checking in at training camps, mindful of the heavy schedule they face to prepare for this weekend's opening of the exhibition schedule.

Twenty teams will be in action, all on Saturday. The Cleveland Browns' game in Los Angeles against the Rams, originally set for Friday night, was moved back 24 hours to give the teams an extra practice day.

Regular-season play begins Sept. 20.

Typical of the comments offered by the arriving veterans was the statement by New Orleans Saints player representative Errol Linden.

"We're happy it's over, that negotiations have been completed," he said. "We've come down eight times in demands now but the owners didn't budge until today."

He acknowledged there would be bitterness around the league toward the 22 veterans who crossed the imaginary picket line and reported to camps before the settlement. But he added: "They all had personal reasons for going in and I feel they were justified."

The dispute began nearly four months ago—ultimately requiring 56 days of bargaining in that span—and peaked about a month ago with both sides still $8 million apart.

When the NFL Players Association asked its 1,300 members to stay away from the training camps, the owners retaliated by opening the camps just to rookies, locking out the veterans.

Only the World Champion Kansas City Chiefs, with special approval of the NFLPA, were allowed to train in preparation for the College All-Star charity game last Friday night in Chicago.

Estep Welding knocked off Bell Dor-Lite 16-12 Monday evening at Eymann Park in a Fayette Softball Association game. The winners totaled 23 hits.

Tom Anderson and Bob Thomas belted four hits apiece to lead Estep, with Pearly Harris, Dave Merriman and Harold White smacking three safeties each.

Gary Merriman and Larry Fugate contributed two hits apiece.

Tom Anderson was the winning pitcher for Estep, which is now 14-2 for the year. Brown was the losing hurler.

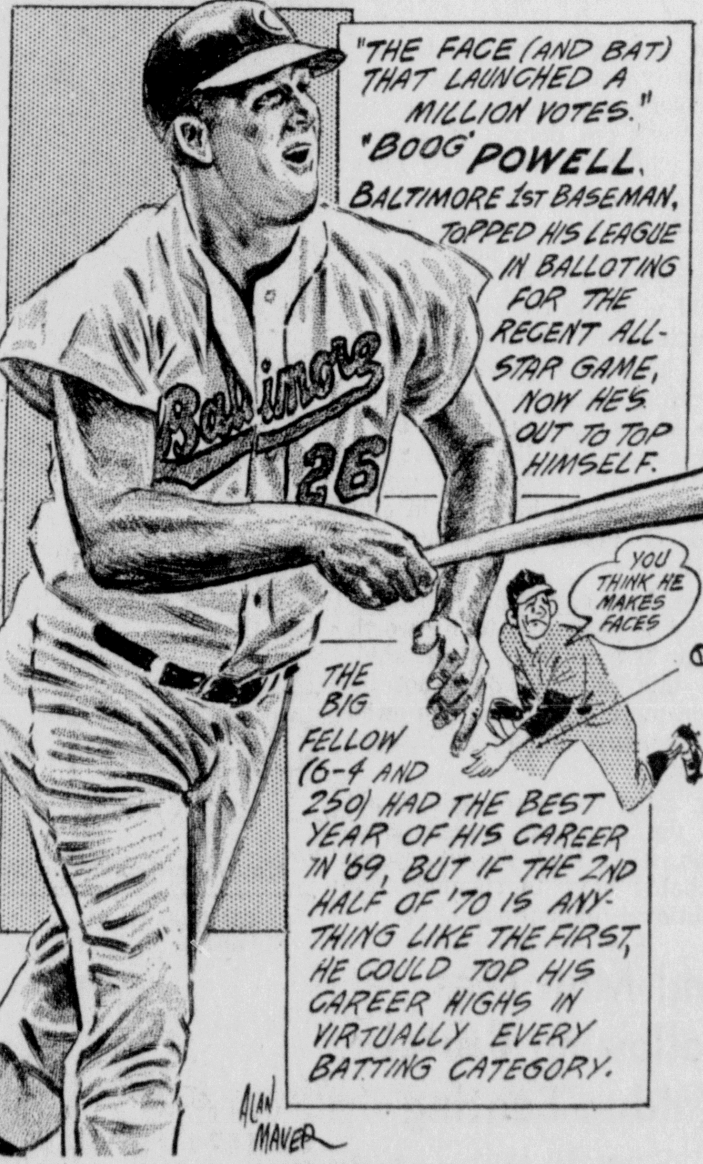

Four hits each were tagged by Charlie Conger and Rick Bell.

Regular-season play begins Sept. 20.

Typical of the comments offered by the arriving veterans was the statement by New Orleans Saints player representative Errol Linden.

"We're happy it's over, that negotiations have been completed," he said. "We've come down eight times in demands now but the owners didn't budge until today."

He acknowledged there would be bitterness around the league toward the 22 veterans who crossed the imaginary picket line and reported to camps before the settlement. But he added: "They all had personal reasons for going in and I feel they were justified."

The dispute began nearly four months ago—ultimately requiring 56 days of bargaining in that span—and peaked about a month ago with both sides still $8 million apart.

When the NFL Players Association asked its 1,300 members to stay away from the training camps, the owners retaliated by opening the camps just to rookies, locking out the veterans.

Only the World Champion Kansas City Chiefs, with special approval of the NFLPA, were allowed to train in preparation for the College All-Star charity game last Friday night in Chicago.

Cliff Cook won the 36-hole Toledo Open Golf Championship Monday, although he admittedly "played like a chopper the last 18."

"I'm real pleased to win, especially on my home course," the host pro said after carding a 68-77-145 on the pay-72 Belmont Country Club layout.

Pat Lindsey of Toledo, an amateur, and Gene Boni, assistant pro at Sylvania Country Club, tied for second with 146s.

Players Flood Training Camps As Grid Strike Ends

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League was back in business today with everyone happy about the settlement of the game's first strike and getting in shape for the start of preseason play.

The most serious labor dispute in the history of American professional sports—which even unprecedented federal mediation failed to resolve—ended Monday following a marathon 22-hour session involving executives of all 26 clubs and the entire seven-man players' committee.

Quarterbacking the action at the league's Park Avenue office was Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who finally stepped out of his role as a supposedly neutral observer, brought both sides together and kept them there until they reached agreement.

The four-year, $19.1-million package involves $4,535,000 a year in owners' contributions to the players' pension fund—the amount the owners had offered at the start of the dispute—plus $250,000 a year in disability, widow, maternity and dental benefits—the owners' apparent compromise since their previous offer.

Thus the players are getting $7.9 million more through the life of this pact than they did under the old one when the owners contributed $2.8 million a year in pensions and benefits for an $11.2 million four-year total.

Within minutes of the announcement of the agreement, players began checking in at training camps, mindful of the heavy schedule they face to prepare for this weekend's opening of the exhibition schedule.

Twenty teams will be in action, all on Saturday. The Cleveland Browns' game in Los Angeles against the Rams, originally set for Friday night, was moved back 24 hours to give the teams an extra practice day.

Regular-season play begins Sept. 20.

Your Horoscope

The Stars Say — By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

GENEROUS stellar influences continue, with accent on the solution of difficult problems and other matters requiring good judgment and keen analysis. Highly favored, too, are all outdoor interests and travel.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that this new year in your life can be highly productive if you plan with your innate intelligence and foresight. Also, if you will curb the Leoite's innate tendency to be overly aggressive, even "bossy" with associates. This will be most important since a large part of your success will derive through the cooperation of superiors and co-workers and it would be foolhardy to alienate those in a position to help you. Plans for career advancement, put into effect by Sept. 1, should show gratifying results by Nov. 30; also, at varying upward levels during January, March and June.

Where your monetary interests are concerned, stars will also be beneficial, with good chances for increasing assets indicated during the last three months of 1970, in March, May and June. Do be conservative in your operations, however. Speculation could be extremely risky — especially during September, early October and late November. It will also be important that you eschew extravagance during the latter half of this month and early next April, when you may be faced with some extra demands upon your cash.

In your private life, you will also be governed by exceptionally generous influences during the next 12 months. Travel and social interests will be under excellent aspects during the next two weeks, in September, February, May and June; and romance will be especially star-blessed during the balance of this month, in October, late December, next March, May and June. If careful to avoid friction toward the middle of this month, you should find your domestic concerns most harmonious for most of the forthcoming year.

A child born on this day will be endowed with a magnetic personality; could make a special success in the fields of salesmanship and politics.

TV Viewing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dinah Shore's new daytime series got a month-long jump on the new season with its NBC premiere Monday and may need every minute of it for its shake-down period.

The half hour is set up in women's magazine format and aims to cover women's interests — as male show producers believed them to be in the days before Women's Lib.

"Dinah's Place" is a series of opulent sets—living room, kitchen, study, greenhouse and sewing room—and the show moves at a gallop from one room to another. Dinah, friendly, informal and breathless, has her work cut out if the series is to be more than a mad dash.

On the opening show—probably the toughest to handle since she was introducing the concept and some of her helpers—she showed the house, exhibited her oil paintings and needlepoint, cooked a platterful of Japanese shrimp under the eyes of her real-life housekeeper, sang, brought on her two children, told of coming attractions and wound up with a brief fashion show.

Historically, TV service programs for women never have done very well. Dinah rashly promises the ladies will be able to learn about the successful handling of men, children, wrinkles, extra pounds, horticulture, new recipes, hobbies, even sewing.

There wasn't time for in-depth cookery or in-depth anything else. And, although Dinah used three friends as models, the fashion show was pretty much a waste of time. Most of the nation's television sets are black and white—and in shades of gray, the most glamorous clothes are pretty unexciting.

If the pace could be slowed and the household hints reduced to fall within the average budget, the half hour might provide a welcome change from the usual TV morning diet of situation comedy reruns and game shows.

ABC will drop one of its soap operas after a four-month trial run. "The Best of Everything" will be abandoned at the end of September in a slight reshuffling of rerun situation comedies that will result in returning a half-hour time period to local stations.

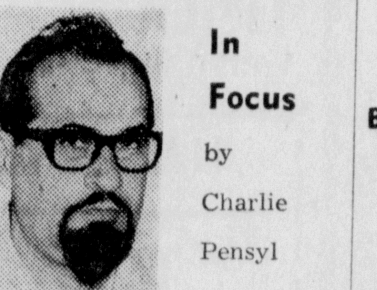

CBS seems to be remodeling, piecemeal, "The Merv Griffin Show." Griffin will lose his announcer-sidekick, 76-year-old Arthur Treacher, in mid-August. He already has a new producer. Bob Shanks, Griffin's producer since the days of his afternoon NBC series, has left.

The new producer will be Walter Kempley, a veteran comedy writer who recently left David Frost.

All the activity seems aimed at beefing up the series' sagging ratings.

So you're going on a vacation trip and you're going to record it with your camera. The idea is great; and maybe we can help with a few hints.

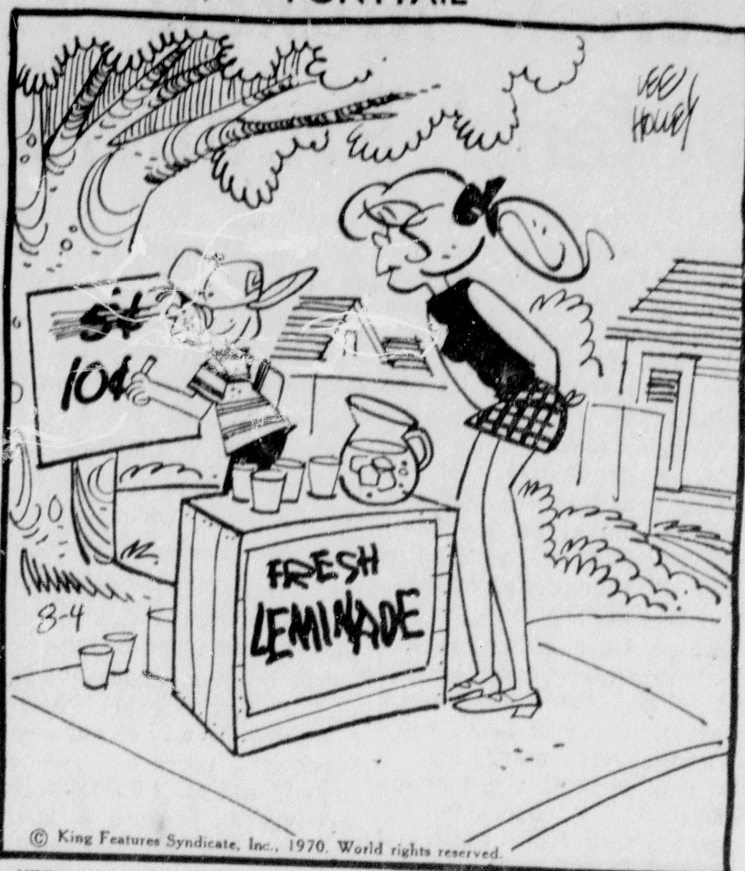

First, before you leave, expose—and have processed—at least one roll of film. Check it to see that your camera is working properly and that you remember how the thing operates. If the camera is new you can find out if you and the camera are going to get along. If you find out if it is too old.

Should you take along flash equipment? There are two sides to this question so I'll stay out. The books say take it along. I never do because I like to travel light. With the High Speed Ektachrome with ASA of 400. That should take care of most poor light problems.

Always get the film before you go! Do not get it along the way or you will have problems. And what film to use? For most shooting Agfachrome is our choice. Some of our top vacation photographers take along a couple of rolls of Kodachrome-X for shooting from an airplane. Both John and Stu take High Speed Ektachrome for those interesting night shots.

And last, but not least, keep it cool. Heat is the worst enemy of films, cameras, filters, and we might add photographers. We keep our film in insulated containers. Oh yes, if you still want more info, here at Pensyl Camera Shop we have for 75c a little book PLANNING AND TAKING YOUR TRAVEL PICTURES. It is worth every dime of it.

Mobile Homes, Subdivision Issues Pending

Land use for mobile homes and approval of two subdivisions will be sought at a Washington C. H. Planning Commission meeting Wednesday night.

Kenneth Bumgarner is asking to rezone 175 acres of land east of Paint Creek on the former Story farm, CCC Highway-E, for use as mobile home sites. The land currently is zoned for single family houses and would have to be rezoned for business purposes to permit use of mobile homes.

Two subdivision plans will be presented to the commission for consideration by Jesse Gilmore of Gilmore Homes, Inc. The two subdivisions, with a total of 23 lots, will be located between Ohio 41-N and Bloomingburg-New Holland Road on a new road to be called Culpepper Trace. # Cereal Makers Defend Products

WASHINGTON (AP) — The dry-cereal industry defended its product before a Senate subcommittee today and said an earlier witness who testified cereals have almost no nutritional value didn't know what he was talking about.

"Breakfast cereals are good foods," declared Dr. Frederick J. Stare, a Harvard nutrition professor and syndicated newspaper columnist who testified on behalf of Kellogg Co. and National Biscuit Co.

"A breakfast of cereal and milk," said Stare, "any kind of milk, along with some fruit, a couple of pieces of toast, some polyunsaturated margarine, a little jelly or jam, is just as nutritious as a bacon-and-egg breakfast with fruit, toast and something to put on the toast."

Stare, one of four industry witnesses to appear before the Senate consumer subcommittee, said in prepared testimony that he had been shocked to read of a report given the panel last week by Robert Choate, a Washington citizen lobbyist who has spent the past three years studying national food policy.

Choate said most cereals on the market offered only empty calories and presented a chart ranking 60 dry cereals. He said his studies showed only the top nine "nutritionally meritorious."

The remainder—including such old standbys as Wheaties, Cheerios and top brands of shredded wheat—he ranked least beneficial, most costly and most heavily advertised on children's television.

Stare called Choate's chart meaningless and presented one of his own which he also promptly labeled meaningless. He urged the subcommittee chaired by Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, to disregard it, too.

"It is meaningless," Stare said of Choate's chart, "because it ignores the way 95 per cent of breakfast cereals are consumed, that is, with milk. It is meaningless because it ignores a basic contribution of any cereal, energy value or calories. It is meaningless because it ignores the concept of the protein quality of the combination of cereal and milk, which is the way breakfast cereals are consumed."

Stare and J. P. MacFarland, chairman of the board of General Mills, Inc., took issue with Choate's charges that the industry, through massive advertising of low-nutritional products, is educating American children away from nutrition.

"Historically, our efforts have been designed to persuade consumers to eat a nourishing breakfast including cereals," said MacFarland.

"Cereals," he said, "were never intended to be, nor are they promoted as, a 'complete meal'."

The blast blew in plate glass windows of the White Pond Drive-Thru Beverage Store on Copley Road east of Akron, damaged parts of its roof and its contents and blew off the tops of two nearby gasoline pumps, officers said.

squarely as she roared over the coastline in mid-afternoon at Aransas Pass. Tides boiled over Padre Island.

City officials said looting started in Corpus Christi before the winds had died down. A small detachment of national Guardsmen sent into the rain-drenched city was quickly enlarged to 200 men.

Blackmon declared a 24-hour curfew. As darkness fell and the rain subsided, the city that described itself as the Sparkling City by the Sea was without electricity, telephones and water.

Hundreds of business buildings including banks, stood windowless and vulnerable.

Pilcher said 3,000 persons were staying in 14 shelters in various parts of the city.

Dennis Richter, unit manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., estimated 100 per cent of Corpus Christi's buildings were damaged.

Fifty to 60 boats were overturned and wrecked in the Corpus Christi marina.

At Aransas Pass, Walker said most of the town's residents rode out the storm.

"We tried to evacuate them, but most of them wanted to sit here and ride these things out," he said.

Farm experts said damage to the $150 million coastal rice, cotton and grain sorghum crops would be heavy. Farmers were in the midst of the rice harvest and cotton was just forming bolls.

A Humble Oil & Refining Co. facility burst into flame at Ingleside. A Shell Oil Co. pipeline was reported ablaze there, with a third oil fire reported at Alice, farther inland.

Celia, the third hurricane of 1970, was the first this year to strike the U.S. mainland.

Councilmen Confer With Realtor Group

City Council met in a work session Monday night with eight area Realtors, builders and members of the Planning Commission to discuss construction requirements in the city.

The group was seeking means to ease building requirements and lower the costs of construction while maintaining the quality of homes and subdivisions.

Discussed at the meeting were types of curbs, tile requirements for drainage, sidewalks on dead-end streets, the construction of houses before streets are paved and the required one-year maintenance bond on new streets in subdivision.

No official action could be taken by the Council during the work session.

Tate Murder Trial

had precluded the possibility of a fair trial.

Meanwhile, the state's star witness, Linda Kasabian, 21, resumed the stand for defense cross-examination. She was accused of murder-conspiracy with the others but was granted immunity from prosecution when she agreed to testify for the state.

The green-eyed mother of two children has testified that Manson ordered the murders of Miss Tate, a blonde, pregnant actress, and four visitors the night of Aug. 8.

The next night, she said, he took members of his clan roaming through Los Angeles in a random search for more victims.

After the slayings of a wealthy market owner, Leno LaBianca, and his wife, she said, Manson took members for a walk on the beach. He bought them milkshakes, she said, and then ordered her to slit another man's throat. She says she thwarted that plot by knocking on the wrong apartment door.

Think Soviets Learned Little From U.S. Poseidon Test

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Navy officials feel they prevented a Soviet spy ship from obtaining vital information about the first submarine firing of a Poseidon missile, even though the Russian vessel made a daring dash that almost resulted in collision at sea.

"We don't know for sure what they were after but they sure didn't get much," a Navy spokesman said.

The incident occurred Monday when the nuclear sub James Madison launched the Poseidon while submerged in the Atlantic 30 miles east of Cape Kennedy. The Soviet trawler Laptev was kept 3,000 yards from the sub by the U.S. destroyer escort Calcaterra until the Poseidon darted to the surface.

Twenty minutes later, the Laptev suddenly cut in front of the destroyer and raced full speed toward the bow of a support ship, the SS Observation Island.

The support ship's commanding officer, Capt. William C. Dotson, twice sounded a warning signal and ordered his engines reversed. The ship stopped dead as the Laptev zipped across the bow.

The Russians were after 10 cushion-sized pieces of a plastic membrane that had covered the launching tube in the deck of the Madison to prevent water from flowing in before the missile was fired.

Although the Soviet crewmen tossed out nets and used grappling hooks, American sailors in a whale boat quickly salvaged all 10 pieces.

The Navy said the segments were not classified and did not know why the Russians were so eager to get them.

Man Files Suit Over Jail Time

CLEVELAND, Ohio (P) — Attorneys for Allen G. Pinkney, 20, who spent 489 days in Cuyahoga County Jail awaiting trial for two murders he did not commit, have lodged a claim for $175,000 against the state.

Attorneys Fred H. Mandel and Jay B. White contend Pinkney's incarceration was a "nightmarish experience" and that it cost him $8,000 in lost wages.

Pinkney and Michael P. Jones, 19, both of Cleveland, were charged with first-degree murder in the 1969 slayings of a policeman and tavern owner. They were freed and two other men indicted last month on the basis of new evidence in the case.

Jones had been convicted and was serving a life sentence at the Ohio Penitentiary when he was freed. Pinkney had gone to trial last November, but the trial ended in a hung jury.

Japan is the country with the highest suicide rate.
